

Jose Pineiro's Shares His Thoughts on the Education System

This Press Release is written to inform the readers about Jose Pineiro's thoughts on the education system.

Aspe, Jan 23, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Jose Pineiro is a famous poet and essayist from Leon who has won the hearts of people around the world with his amazing work, such as The lost warmth, Anthology of the years, Skies and hells, In the shade of sunset, A live fire, From here and period, Thought in the Darkness of Being – Trilogy, Chrysalis of the moon, From the agoraphobia, and more. Apart from his excellent poetic works, Jose is also known for voicing his honest opinion on everything from the role of writers in the society to the current education system.

In one of his recent interviews, Jose Pineiro was quoted as saying that there is a great need of change in how education is imparted to students in most schools and colleges. He does not support the concept of feeding students with rhetoric information. Instead, he feels that they should be provided real and vocational education as it promotes practical learning.

About Jose Pineiro

Jose Pineiro is a renowned poet, essayist, and collaborator who were born in El Ferrol. His family moved to Leon when he was 7. He collaborates frequently with other writers or fanzines in recitals, tributes, and presentations.

Most of Jose Pineiro's works revolve around the topics like real power of economy over the governments, lobbies to date and their political gear, end of the era of industrialization and the reasons why this will happen, corruption without taboos, and the true life and background of the powerful worldwide, etc. Some of his popular works include Thought in the Darkness of Being – Trilogy, Drowned in the senses, The lost warmth, and more.

Media Contact

Jose Pineiro - Famous Poet

trulaareyes@dayrep.com

Source : Jose Pineiro

See on IssueWire