Get to know Internist Dr. Rupal Bhatt, who serves patients in Fairfield, New Jersey.

New York City, Jan 17, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Bhatt is a board-certified internist who has been practicing in the New Jersey Metro area for the last 15 years. She serves patients at Fairfield Primary Doctors in Fairfield, New Jersey.

Fairfield Primary Doctors, run by Dr. Bhatt and Dr. Shirish Bhatt, MD, has been committed to providing the highest quality health care and medical services possible to adults throughout the community. The mission of the practice is to provide state-of-the-art, compassionate primary care for young families and the geriatric community while ensuring each patient's visit is a pleasurable and comfortable experience.

Today, Dr. Bhatt's practice includes the spectrum of patients from moms and teachers to general contractors and business leaders in the local community. Her commitment to adults and their geriatric parents makes Fairfield Primary Doctors a true family practice, leading to a healthy community.

After earning her medical degree from Smt. NHL Municipal Medical College in Ahmedabad, India, Dr. Bhatt relocated to the United States. Wanting to further her education, she completed her training at hospitals affiliated with the prestigious Albert Einstein College of Medicine in New York, with some time spent at the world-renowned Sloan Kettering Medical Center. After her intense training, she began her practice in New Jersey with the Veterans Administration and quickly rose to the rank of Lead Physician at the outpatient center before going into private practice.

The doctor's accolades include the prestigious Oak Leaf Award, bestowed by the Veterans Administration for Outstanding Excellence in Patient Care. That was quickly followed by a Congressional Letter of Commendation by Congressman William Pascrell. Most importantly, her daily award is the smile on her patients' faces.

Internal medicine or general medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
