

Big Mountain is Spreading Waves of Love and Musical Assertion with His Eccentric Soundscape

Creative legacy and musical transcendence of mystifying lyrical glow and socio-cultural unanimity in Big Mountain's soundscape continues to enhance reggae influences.

San Diego, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Over the years of musical nurturing and reggae influencing cultural freedom of speech, the Big Mountain band has emerged as one of the most looked upon outfits in the genre. Their songs, the age-defining ‘Oooh Baby I Love Your Way Everyday’ and ‘Angelina’ in a creative collaboration with Raingad have time and again reminded us of musical clarity like no other. The popularity of ‘Oooh Baby I Love Your Way Everyday’ and ‘Angelina’ does not only stand as the benchmark of artistic freedom but also brims with individualistic opinions of a unanimous world compiling love and all-inclusivity.

Big Mountain is currently tied to the label Euro Tec Music Group that has given them a global exposure to experiment tunes and sounds as per their musical senses. They have been significant influences for many reggae outfits that have formed over the years and now, they are back in form to give the world a taste of their newest creation, a single titled ‘Get Together’. From the conception to the production, the song has paved its way into the legislature of contemporary reggae standards.

As Big Mountain prepares to take on the world one more time with the Get-Together World Tour, expect them to see in Australia, Europe, America, and Asia. Their other hits ‘Love So Strong’, ‘Vision’, ‘Perfect Summer’, and ‘Seven More Days’ all depict their colossal musical legacy. Follow them on Spotify, Twitter, Instagram, Facebook, YouTube, and their official website to stay updated on their upcoming projects and tours.
