

Mohammad Tiregar became the paytakht 6 series actor

The paytakht 6 series Actor, Mohammed Tiregar, directed by Siroos Moghaddam

San Francisco, Feb 10, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Paytakht is a popular Iranian TV series released through five seasons and eighty-three episodes over the course of seven years (2011–2018) during each Nowruz, the Persian New Year. The comedy series is directed by Siroos Moghaddam and Mohsen Tanabandeh is the author and the main actor of this series. Mohammed Tiregar and Reza Tiregar will also star in season six of the series.

Behboud has past away, Arastou crashes his new car with the Mamouli family inside. they decides to go to Turkey for Eid, and on a hot air balloon ride, the driver who is drunk, has a heart attack, dies, and leaves the Mamouli family in the desert of Syria amd ISIS.

They find a tank and enough gas to carry them back to Turkey, but on there way, they find a Syrian family who need there help, they provide them with cell to call there friends back home, but when they stop to rest at a deserted town inside a destroyed building, ISIS turned out to be hiding illegal weapons their, ISIS finds the family and when the father of the Syrian family gets a call from the Mamouli family relatives back in Iran, ISIS kills him and leaves to get more people,

A helicopter from Damascus pick up the Mahmouli family and the Syrian family including the body of the father who later dies in the helicopter, the wife gives Homa her husband's bracelet who gove it to Naghi.

Media Contact

News

MohammadTiregar@gmail.com

Source : Paytakht series news

See on IssueWire