

Barry J. Cunha, DDS, a Dentist in Private Practice

Get to know Dentist Dr. Barry J. Cunha, who serves patients in Lexington, Massachusetts.

New York City, Mar 12, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - A practicing dentist since 1981, Dr. Cunha knows how important having a great smile is to looking and feeling good. That is why he and his entire team at his Lexington, Massachusetts dental practice are committed to providing the highest quality in family and cosmetic dentistry, while creating an atmosphere of comfort and care.

By leveraging today's advanced techniques and technology, Dr. Cunha can create results that change how one looks and feels. Whether a patient needs a routine checkup or more advanced procedures like a smile makeover, he offers a wide variety of procedures to uniquely fit their individual needs. He also believes strongly in education to prevent oral health problems before they occur, and makes sure to keep patients fully informed about their dental health.

On the subject of his educational background, Dr. Cunha completed his undergraduate studies at Tufts University, and received his Doctor of Dental Surgery degree from Howard University College of Dentistry. He received the Oral Surgery Award as the top student in his class, and was inducted into the honorary dental society, Omicron Kappa Upsilon. He then completed a general practice residency with the U.S. Air Force in Mississippi, and spent two more years on active duty in San Angelo, Texas. He started civilian practice in both the Winchester and Lexington offices in 1984, while continuing to serve in the Air Force Reserves for over twenty years (retired Lt. Colonel).

While in the U.S. Air Force during Desert Storm, he also participated in several humanitarian medical missions to Honduras and Guatemala in Central America, Indian reservations in the United States, and Guyana in South America.

As for his training and experience, Dr. Cunha is a graduate of the Center for Professional Development in Scottsdale, Arizona, an intensive five-year postgraduate program in dentistry, and was subsequently selected to enter the master's program, which he completed in 1994. For over twenty years, he has been a Research Evaluator for the Clinical Foundation, headquartered in Provo, Utah. The foundation is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to the testing of all existing products and techniques in dentistry. There are currently over 400 evaluators around the world.

Committed to excellence in dentistry, Dr. Cunha is a past Chairman of the Lexington Chamber of Commerce, a Trustee of the Lexington Historical Society, a Trustee of the Liberties Condo Association, and an active member of the Lexington Minutemen, including past Company Commander. He is also a member of the Massachusetts Dental Society, the American Dental Society, and the Lexington Study Club.

Dentistry, also known as Dental and Oral Medicine, is a branch of medicine that consists of the study, diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of diseases, disorders, and conditions of the oral cavity. Dentists diagnose and treat dental issues and help patients develop better oral hygiene regimens. They clean teeth, correct bite issues, perform surgeries and extractions, and perform other duties to ensure that the teeth and mouth are healthy.

Outside of the office, Dr. Cunha enjoys spending time with his family, as well as playing golf and league softball.
