

Harsh Shah - Youngest CEO of Techtronic Harsh at age of 20

Popular for his Creative Ideas & Mind at Young Age.

Gandhinagar, Mar 24, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - A boy from Gandhinagar District of Gujarat who sets another example of people who share their experience of Excellency down the line at a mere age of 18. Harsh Shah, 18, is a Young, Computer Engineering Student from Saffrony Institute of Technology. He's never been passionate about his subjects in academics. Ironically, he is one of those young fellows who prove their worth and break every stereotypical mindset. On being asked about his hobbies, he says, " I've always been passionate about cars. Mustang always has my heart. Also, sports has been equally close to my heart at a very young age."

His interests in sports reflect his achievements at quite a young age. He's a national level skater and a coach at the St. Xavier's school, Gandhinagar for the same.

But this is not what makes him among the lines!

Harsh Shah aspires to become one among the youngest leading entrepreneurs in Gujarat. To assure the same, he is currently working on a number of projects and getting a very wide and appreciative response. His works prove to be useful for young engineering students and tech nukes who need proper guidance and that which is affordable. Harsh provides them access to easy methods of coding, web designing and matters pertaining to the techy stuff. His methodology is reliable and easily accessible. Being a YouTuber, he makes this accessible through his channel Techtronic Harsh, providing easy solutions for any layman to understand and work on.

His channel Techtronic Harsh deals with DIY Projects, School Projects, Automation, IoT, Multicopters, and electronic Project Tutorials.

He's also Web Designer.

He has even taken part in International Book of Records for Largest Crowd Skating.

While people of his age are busy digging them into books and thinking of finding a proper goal in one's life, Harsh has already started his journey as a young entrepreneur. His kind and easy elucidating approach to his acquaintance, his fellow-mates, makes him s favorite company for everyone around him.

Adding a little more to his initial story of success, Harsh, at this mere age, has also been successful in becoming an official Google Assistant Action Developer.

Harsh Shah has benefited society in a lot more ways. He has also been able to achieve what a handful number of people achieve years later they had thought about.

We hope that he continues to be helpful to the society he lives in. As being a young CEO, we expect him to make his nation touch new heights in the near future and be an ideal inspiration to the Youths of Indian.

Jai Hind!
