

Tom D'Frick Wins 'Hip-hop Song of the year' at Volta Music Awards 2020

Ghanaian Hip Hop Artiste Tom D'Frick Has Proven To Be a Hero With First Awards

Greater Accra, Mar 22, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Ghanaian Hip Hop artist Tom D'Frick has broken his drought at the Volta Music Awards 2020 by winning the Hip Hop Song of the Year award.

"Truth" hitmaker won this honor after beating Ghana's improved rapper, Jessy, Zygee, Mawuli Younggod, Planet Machette, Kojo Teezy, Tokz, Koteakeh and Pj DaAthur, with his debut song "Truth" which features Fyah Krew.

The AMG Ghanaian rapper Tom D'Frick had a successful 2019, and he has kept it up till date, in regard to his music business. This positive result did not come by default; as a result, his management team ought to be lauded for their output.

This year, his team hope for a win in all the categories he was nominated in but only drew out with winning a category, following their matchless hard work during the year under review.

For the people who work behind the scenes, mostly their great deal of effort is never heralded. However, it is only natural that their hard work for the rapper since taking charge of affairs is accentuated. In a related development, the team is set to release his next single titled 'Ovorvorm'. A song churned by Monee Beatz and co-produced by Lonely Beatz.

About Tom D'Frick

Rapper Tom D'Frick was born Barclain Oridge Samuel McTrinity Abusah at Ecowas Road and Ghana's Aflao Border Town, Ketu Municipal in the Volta Region.

Tom D'Frick started school at Akosombo VRA No.1 and continued to finished his Junior High School at Akatsi No.1 and pursued his Senior secondary education at Sunrise Christian High and later transferred to finish at Ave Senior High School.

Grew up around a mother and Dad who listened to all genre of music, which helps him in his love for music. The upstanding artiste quickly makes a U-turn to energize his audience who knew him as an Entrepreneur and a role model.

Even though he had previously recorded other singles. He gained wider attention from Ghanaian's, after the release of his first single, "Fella Freestyle", which started getting more audience attention and promised to fill engaged more into Music. For more information on Lord Morgan, please visit www.tomdfrick.com

Website: <http://tomdfrick.com>

Connect With Tom D'Frick

Facebook: TomDFrickUK

Twitter: TomDFrick

Instagram: Tom_DFrick

YouTube Channel: www.youtube.com/tomdfrick

Media Contact

Tom Consult

tomdfreck@gmail.com

+233241023922

Resident of Ghana - Tema

Source : Tom Consult

See on IssueWire