

“We are now facing a global crisis. We need to draw strength from each other.” - McNicoll

Multi-talented Quebec Pop/Rock Artist Star McNicoll Jumps On Board To Secure Management, Publishing & Distribution Through AMG'S International Label & Film Placement Connections

Toronto, Mar 19, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - In line with the recent events that's been happening across the globe, Multi-talented Quebec Pop/Rock Artist, McNicoll, is releasing Electric Sun early April. His first single off the English album slated end of year resonates our desire, our commitment to represent positivity-on how we can draw strength from one another and act as ONE human race.

The song offers a magical blend of Rock and Electronic music. There's this relaxed vibe in the intro where McNicoll shows off his vocal prowess, a pre-taste which leads you to a more upbeat ride.

McNicoll is a Quebec Singer/Songwriter who has performed in the music scene in French Quebec, for over five years. His rise to fame began in 2014 with the release of Tomber en amour that charted number one for nine consecutive weeks. Un Peu De Soleil followed at the top of the charts for over thirty-three weeks, where he appeared alongside other established Quebec artists are performing across the province.

After delivering what was arguably his best rock vocal performance, McNicoll began to turn heads with his original lyrics, delivery style, and sheer presence on stage. His breakthrough singles took the Quebec charts by storm, making him an instant household name in French Quebec, all while growing his fan base to attract the attention of international media executive Mark S. Berry.

"We are very excited to have McNicoll on the AMG roster, and he is a highly talented, driven, and experienced artist who brings a fresh take to the live scene with amazingly crafted pop/rock song," McNicoll will join a global roster of artists on AMG/SONY distributed labels that include other superstars such as Alicia Keys, Travis Scott, Harry Styles, Khalid, Camila Cabello, Future, Mark Ronson, and many more.

McNicoll has continued to perform at various Quebec based festivals in Quebec alongside hand-picked international artists from around the world and is well known for bringing the house down. His buzz and success in a short period also led to an invitation to join the cream of the crop of Canadian artists to perform internationally at Canadian festivals this summer of 2020.

McNicoll is currently in the studio recording tracks for his debut album with producers including Jeff Grenier, Mathieu Brisset, John Webster, Patch Safari.

"I'm very excited to take my career to the next level with one of the biggest indie record labels around, and this is a great opportunity for me to embark on a new journey. I'm very excited to be part of the AMG Sony distributed music family of artists, and it is evident that Mark and all of us share the same passion for music," says Stephan McNicoll. The signing of a multi-talented rock star McNicoll is part of AMG's belief that Quebec artists can achieve new international and global success.

Electric Sun Remix By Patch Safari, a Montreal-based production duo formed in 2017 by Roxane Durand and Julien Turmel is scheduled to be released and be available on all music platforms by April 10, 2020.
