

8-year old Leslie Ollison Articulates her Covid-19 Fears

Detroit, Michigan child discusses her fears and triumphs

Detroit, Apr 27, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - In this self-reflection book, 8 years old, talented Artist Leslie Ollison discusses her fears of the coronavirus, daily adjustments, and triumphs. She clearly articulates her inner thoughts surrounding the global pandemic and the effects on her daily life before adopting a new perspective.

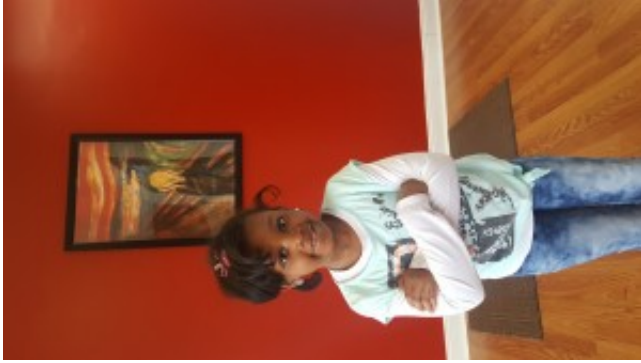

At the end of the story, you'll have insight into the mind of a child during the 2020 global pandemic, including her parents' responses, possible solutions, the first look at some of her anime and other drawings, and positive coping recommendations from Leslie.

More information can be found at <https://www.leslieollison.com/>

About Leslie Ollison

Leslie Ollison, lives in Michigan with her family and attends the Pollack Academic Center of Excellence. She is in the third grade, and her favorite subjects are Reading and Art. Leslie received the Red Carpet Super Star award four years in a row, sometimes several times throughout the school year for her academic achievement and outstanding citizenship. She enjoys creating a variety of art using watercolors and oil pastels to produce eye-catching abstract expressions. She has taken courses at the College of Creative Studies Youth Program, Marygrove College, and attended Cranbrook summer camp and the YMCA summer camp. In 2019, she showcased her talents during a One-Kid Art exhibit held at a local university. Leslie also enjoys playing games, riding her bike, and talking on the phone to her friends. She aspires to become a renowned artist, fashion designer, and singer.

Media Contact

none

trmccrory06@yahoo.com

734-796-7600

Source : Tammy McCrory

See on IssueWire