

Dr. Berkowitz of Michigan Hair Restoration Partners with Hungry Howie's Pizza to Serve Hospital Workers

Sterling Heights, Apr 12, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Mark Berkowitz of Michigan Hair Restoration (www.michiganhairstoration.com) has proudly partnered with Hungry Howie's Pizza to provide meals to dedicated hospital workers throughout Southeast Michigan.

"We at Michigan Hair Restoration want to help keep the frontline Health care workers supported as much as possible during these tough times. This is why I have joined forces with Hungry Howie's Pizza to provide meals to various hospitals within the area." — Dr. Mark Berkowitz

Dr. Berkowitz and Hungry Howie's are conscious of the fact that Hospital Workers, not only need food, but they need it handled safely. This is the reason pizzas will be served in personalized boxes, instead of the typical family-style.

Dr. Berkowitz has made his book "Know Hair" available to the public complimentary on his website during and after our stay at home order.

"It's important to me that people get the information they need. If you have more questions, please feel free to contact my team for a virtual consultation." — Dr. Mark Berkowitz

Michigan Hair Restoration was founded in 2013 by Dr. Mark Berkowitz. As a cosmetic surgeon, he is always seeking ways to help people look better and feel better about their appearance. Beginning in his 30s, he found he was losing hair, but didn't want a linear scar on the back of his head. Everything changed when Dr. Berkowitz discovered the NeoGraft procedure — a hair transplant that does not leave a linear scar. He was so excited about the procedure he had it done himself. He and his team have transplanted millions of grafts since.
