

The Career of Valentino Infante at ALSAC

Miami, Apr 23, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Perhaps one of the most impressive aspects of Valentino Infante's career success so far is that he has been able to make it all happen as he was raising a beautiful family and attending the University of Memphis. That is not easy for anyone and yet, Valentino should have his Bachelor's Degree in Marketing Management very soon. This is because Valentino Infante is actually very motivated to be the best he can be and always has been. It was instilled into him and his brother at a very young age.

In fact, Valentino Infante and his brother established a very successful call center in 2010. Located in Coral Springs, Florida, that business sold telecom packages and did that so well, it drew interest from many of the right people. Valentino Infante was called and offered a job by some very high-placed people at American Lebanese Syrian Associated Charities (ALSAC), which is based in Memphis. ALSAC is the parent company that operates the prestigious St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. since he arrived at ALSAC as a bilingual representative for outsourced operations, Valentino Infante has been moving up the company ladder.

Media Contact

Valentino Infante

pedroinfante933@gmail.com

Source : Valentino Infante

See on IssueWire