Bhopal, May 27, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Abhishek Dutta, a well-known personality but with a common name and identity. You might as well heard about his startups or visited or bought a few of his products in the past.

He is a serial- entrepreneur hailing from the City of Lakes Bhopal, India. He has worked with 100+ people served over 500k customers worldwide. He started his journey when he was 16. He has Started over 17+ companies to date.

How did you start your Journey?

I was 15 or 16 when I first started with my best friend. He was the backbone of everything I started and at that time we didn't even hear the word like- startups, and entrepreneurs, or even smartphones. It was tough for both of us but we endured, tried, and failed but we never gave up.

What was your greatest milestone?

I think my best moment is yet to come. But yes, I have something recognizable though. We were selected in MTV SO17 Top 10 startups in India.

What message do you want to give to other millennial entrepreneurs?

Never stop hustling. The more you grind the more the road towards glory is visible. Don't run towards making money instead try giving something valuable towards society.

Moving forward,

He is a person that can lead with a greater vision. Currently started working on his new venture. He is looking forward to creating a team and from the below links you can get in touch with him.
