

Flounce Elevates Their Rank in the Jazz Community with the Release of Their New EP Flounce

Flounce leaves a lasting impression on the audience with their EP Flounce that covers some upbeat jazz soundtracks and highlights the band's superior musicality.

Portland, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Flounce brings forward something that is a plethora of varied styles and ecstatic textures fused into one solid piece. The much-hyped band who got into crafting their unique sounds back in the year has already mastered the art of creating exciting jazz musicals pieces. Recently the band has released its vibrant new EP that is uniquely melodic, immersive, and engulfs audience with its warm and exciting neo-jazz melodies. Blending in beautifully tripped up jazz driven beats with a much mellow paced soundscape, all the songs sound easy on the ears and surely weaves its magical effect.

The EP 'Flounce' encompasses four tracks, 'Rip', 'I Will Always Choose Me', 'Love Island', and 'Rose Gold' each of which stands tall in their own unique and creative ways. Simplicity is the key and this band just utilizes their refreshing approach fused with warm hooks to connect to the audience effectively. Band members Emily Bodley – vocals, Nick TB - bass, saxophoneConor Linehan - lead guitar, and Gabe Blanchard – drums have displayed stunning arrangement as each of them stand out with their exciting sound contribution.

Flounce believes in combining and creating progressive jazz-funk music along with R&B and neo-soul and all the songs offer plenty of grooves to make the listener participate in their artistry. The band takes it inspiration from Hambone, YEAHMAN, Bandwich, Lake Street Dive, and Hiatus Kaiyote to create such mesmerizing sonic pieces. The tracks 'Rip', 'I Will Always Choose Me', 'Love Island', and 'Rose Gold' offer a loving musical journey to all jazz music lovers as the band has rightly uplifted the simple sentiments with a striking vocal layered with intriguing jazz instrumentals.
