Get to know Anesthesiologist Dr. John David Y. Cabral, who serves patients in Jacksonville, Florida.

New York City, May 2, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Cabral is a board-certified anesthesiologist who practices at UF Health Jacksonville & UF Health North, which are a part of the UF Health network. He also serves as an Assistant Professor within the Department of Anesthesiology at the University of Florida College of Medicine - Jacksonville.

UF Health Jacksonville is a private, not-for-profit hospital affiliated with the University of Florida Health Science Center campuses in Jacksonville and Gainesville. Combining the strengths with the UF College of Medicine-Jacksonville, it offers residents in Northeast Florida and Southeast Georgia all the benefits of an academic health center. The hospital is made up of more than 3,300 employees, all supporting the hospital's mission to heal, comfort, and educate in an environment where exemplary medical care is complemented by outstanding service.

Following the completion of his medical degree from the Boston University School of Medicine, Dr. Cabral went on to complete his residency in anesthesiology at Brigham & Women's Hospital in Boston, Massachusetts.

Before long, the doctor became board-certified in anesthesiology by the American Board of Anesthesiology (ABA). As the certifying body for anesthesiologists since 1938, the ABA is committed to partnering with physicians to advance the lifelong learning and exceptional patient care. Its mission is to advance the highest standards of the practice of anesthesiology.

Anesthesiology is the medical specialty concerned with the total perioperative care of patients before, during, and after surgery. It encompasses anesthesia, intensive care medicine, critical emergency medicine, and pain medicine. Anesthesiologists have the primary responsibility of monitoring the patient's vital signs during surgery. In addition to basic measurements such as pulse, blood pressure and temperature, anesthesiologists also measure the patient's respiration.

Among his numerous accolades, Dr. Cabral is the recipient of Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2010, 2011, 2012, 2016, 2017) and Patients' Choice Award (2010, 2011, 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018).
