Get to know Internist Dr. Vikramaditya Samela Venkata, who serves patients in Keene, New Hampshire.

New York City, May 22, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Recognized as a well-versed internist, Dr. Venkata specializes in hospital medicine. He can be found on staff at Cheshire Medical Center, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Keene in New Hampshire. He joined the hospital's staff in 2017, overseeing patient care from admission to discharge and working collaboratively with each patient's primary care physician.

For 125 years, Cheshire Medical Center has been caring for the health and wellness of the local community. An affiliate of the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Health system, the nonprofit community medical center provides a continuum of care, spanning primary care and specialty medicine to surgical services and acute inpatient care. Its mission is "to lead our community to optimal health and wellness through our clinical and service excellence, collaboration, and compassion for every patient, every time."

After earning his medical degree from Kakatiya Medical College Warangal in Telangana, India, in 2011, Dr. Venkata relocated to the United States to further his training. Once there, he completed his residency in internal medicine at the University of Rochester Medical Center in New York in 2017.

The doctor is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine, a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

In addition to English, Dr. Venkata is fluent in Hindi and Telugu.
