New York City, Jun 30, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Paliwal is a respected family physician in practice with Indus Healthcare, Inc. in Pomona, West Covina, and Montclair, California. He practices family and occupational medicine along with complementary approaches to ensure his patients receive the best care for every condition.

At his practice, Dr. Paliwal treats his patients with an emphasis on integrative medicine techniques. He and his team know that a holistic approach coupled with technologically modern diagnostic and treatment options is the most effective way to address disease in men, women, and children. With the hope of helping people in every stage of life, he offers men's health visits, women's health visits, pediatric care, and geriatric care at Indus Healthcare, Inc.

Before embarking on his professional journey, Dr. Paliwal completed his undergraduate work at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles, where he earned his Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree in Philosophy. He attended the American University of the Caribbean School of Medicine in Plymouth, Montserrat, where he completed his medical degree. He then returned to the West Coast and finished a Master of Business Administration (MBA) program in Health Services and Information Technology at the University of La Verne, followed by his Master of Public Health (MPH) degree with a focus on Health Services at the University of California, Los Angeles.

After extensive education focused on healthcare, Dr. Paliwal completed a residency in family medicine at Arrowhead Regional Medical Center in Colton, California, followed by an additional residency in occupational and environmental medicine at Duke University Medical Center in Durham, North Carolina. He went on to complete a fellowship in complementary and integrative medicine at the University of Arizona, Andrew Weil Center for Integrative Medicine.

Skilled and compassionate in his approach to care, the doctor has been successfully treating patients throughout his more than twenty years in practice. He is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine, a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Among his professional affiliations, he is a member of the American Academy of Family Physicians, the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine, the American Medical Association, and the California Medical Association.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

When he is not working, Dr. Paliwal enjoys spending time with his wife, Mohini, and their two children. In addition to English, he speaks Hindi and Urdu.
