Get to know Family Physician Dr. Candace Murbach, who serves patients in Orange Park, Florida.

New York City, Jun 16, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Murbach is a board-certified family physician who attributes her success to feeling that each day is a privilege to work with patients and give them quality healthcare. She serves as the Program Director of the Family Medicine Residency Program at Orange Park Medical Center.

Orange Park Medical Center is a full-service, emergency care hospital specializing in robotic surgery and pediatric care in Orange Park, Florida. As a leader in quality care, the mission of the hospital is to “provide quality, caring, patient-centered healthcare. We want our patients to feel they are being viewed by the doctors and staff as unique people with individual needs.”

Back in 1993, Dr. Murbach earned her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (DO) degree from the Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine in East Lansing, Michigan. She then went on to complete her residency in family medicine at Lutheran Hospital of Indiana.

A member of the American Academy of Family Physicians and the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine, the doctor is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.
