Get to know Dermatologist Dr. Denise M. Guevara, who serves patients throughout the State of Florida.

New York City, Jun 30, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Guevara is a well-respected and talented dermatologist specializing in dermatologic surgery, skin cancer prevention and treatment, and aesthetic medicine. She works at Skin and Cancer Associates and The Center for Cosmetic Enhancement with offices in Margate, Tamarac, and Wellington, Florida.

Performing a blend of cosmetic and dermatologic services, she provides patients with the latest laser technology and expertise in the field of dermatology. She also offers her patients specially formulated skincare products for use as part of a physician-supervised skincare regimen.

Skin and Cancer Associates and The Center for Cosmetic Enhancement is a private dermatology group of 80 dermatologists, nurse practitioners, and physician's assistants at more than 25 locations in Florida. As the field of cosmetic dermatology has grown over the years, the team of professionals at Skin and Cancer Associates and The Center for Cosmetic Enhancement have been leaders, research investigators, lecturers, and innovators in areas such as hair transplant surgery, ablative and nonablative laser treatments, vein removal, the use of collagen and Botox® in wrinkle reduction, photorejuvenation, and many other areas.

Back in 2001, Dr. Guevara earned her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (DO) degree from the New York Institute of Technology College of Osteopathic Medicine. She was a recipient of the National Institutes of Health Research grant.

As a fellow within the Department of Dermatology at Mount Sinai, she worked on studies and collaborated on multiple journal articles relating to anti-aging and anti-cancer. As a clinical research coordinator, she worked on studies with the FADC at the University of Miami Hospital, where she also worked extensively in the departments of In-Patient Care and Pediatric Dermatology. Dr. Guevara completed her residency at Wellington Regional Medical Center, where she served as chief resident and rotated in the Department of Dermatology at Yale University and the University of Pennsylvania.

As a testament to her success, the doctor is board-certified in dermatology by the American Board of Dermatology, a voluntary, non-profit, private, autonomous organization formed for the primary purpose of protecting the public interest by establishing and maintaining high standards of training, education, and qualifications of physicians rendering care in dermatology.

A Fellow of the American Academy of Dermatology (FAAD), she is a member of the American Osteopathic Association, the American Medical Association, the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society, the Florida Osteopathic Medical Association, and the American Osteopathic College of Dermatology.

Dermatology is the branch of medicine dealing with the skin. The skin is the largest organ of the body. Dermatology is a specialty with both medical and surgical aspects. A dermatologist is a specialist doctor who manages skin diseases and deals with both internal and external causes and some cosmetic concerns involving the skin. Dermatological duties include taking consultations, providing screening tests, and undertaking non-invasive surgical procedures.

An authority in her field, Dr. Guevara is the recipient of numerous awards and recognitions, including: Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2013, 2015, 2016, 2018), On-Time Doctor Award (2018), and Patients' Choice Award (2018).
