Get to know Licensed Practical Nurse, Esther Wren, who serves patients in Virginia.

New York City, Jun 24, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Esther, a licensed practical nurse, specializes in working with the geriatric population. At present, she is affiliated with Maxim Healthcare Services in the state of Virginia.

Maxim Healthcare Services is a privately held medical staffing company headquartered in Columbia, Maryland that was founded in 1988 as MEDCALL Medical Staffing. Its mission is to provide reliable, safe, and patient-centered care through innovative and efficient care delivery models.

Esther went to Fairfax School of Practical Nursing, in Fairfax, Virginia and graduated in 1992. She received a full scholarship from Robert Banium, owner of Fairfax Nursing Center. She worked there for 18 years under some wonderful mentors who made her the nurse she is today. With a degree in hand from FNC, she was a floor nurse, resident liaison, health nurse, wound nurse, and director of purchasing. She was also a Referral Coordinator for Blueridge Hospice for several years. Additionally, she was DON/assistant administrator for an assisted living facility (The Southerlands) in Front Royal, Virginia for 8 years.

A licensed practical nurse (LPN) provides routine care for the sick or injured. They work under the supervision of doctors and registered nurses, performing duties such as taking vital signs, collecting samples, administering medication, ensuring patient comfort, and reporting the status of their patients to the nurses.

LPNs are generally hired in smaller settings such as nursing homes, home health environments, and rehabilitation centers. They must be skilled in balancing care for patients and completing practical daily administrative tasks.

In her personal life, Esther is married. She and her loving and supporting family, who she attributes her success to, reside in Front Royal, Virginia.
