Get to know Registered Nurse Kimber Sanderson, who serves patients in Weleetka, Oklahoma.

New York City, Jun 25, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Kimber is a registered nurse who specializes in gerontology. She holds the role of Director of Nursing at Rainbow Terrace Care Center, an assisted living facility located in Weleetka, Oklahoma.

Rainbow Terrace Care Center offers a variety of therapies and care services to help patients regain their independence. Skilled nurses, therapists, and licensed care professionals are available to guide each patient through their personalized therapy - whether they are recovering after a hospital visit or in need of on-going medical support.

Caring for all persons in need, Kimber has been around Rainbow Terrace Care Center since her father owned it when she was just three years old. She studied nursing at Oklahoma State University Institute of Technology, and Leadership in Nursing at Southwestern Oklahoma State University before embarking on her professional journey.

Prior to her current role at Rainbow Terrace Care Center, she worked at the Oklahoma Department of Human Services.

A Registered Nurse (RN) is a nurse who has graduated from a nursing program and met the requirements outlined by a country, state, province or similar licensing body to obtain a nursing license. RNs fulfill a variety of job duties. In addition to their primary role in treating and caring for patients, their responsibilities also include educating patients and the public about a variety of medical conditions, as well as providing emotional support and advice to the families of their patients. Other RN job functions include leadership, research, performing diagnostic tests and analyzing results, operating medical equipment, administering medications, recording patients' symptoms and medical histories, and assisting with patient rehabilitation and follow-up.

On a more personal note, Kimber is happily married with three children.
