Gurgaon, Jun 5, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Astroyogi a well-known online astrology platform recently announced the launch of its new Chat with astrologer feature on 1st June 2020. The company has been in the industry for more than two decades and offers seamless astrological services to people online both nationally & internationally.

From a full-fledged astrology website to categorised apps for all, the team has always been striving to develop, grow and also introduce changes which are extremely inevitable for the brand to stand out.

One such introduction is the chat feature. As millennials, we all love to chat more and that way we can express more openly. Keeping this aspect in mind, the company decided to take its services a notch higher to give a personal touch to what they represent.

The online chat with astrologer service will give you access to connect with your choice of astrologer over messages 24*7. You can enjoy a live chat, or leave a message if you are hesitant to make a call.

At Astroyogi you can find tarot card readers, palmistry, talk to an astrologer option, horoscope, Kundli matching and other such Vedic astrology services in a few clicks.

During this pandemic, where the entire world is coping with this sudden change, people have been going through varied emotions which pushes them to seek assistance in order to pull themselves together. The basic idea behind this launch was to provide a helping hand to and be there to guide them as life coaches so that they can cope with the present situation.

The team has been on the ball analysing, strategizing to provide smooth access functioning to all its customers via this incredible and interactive feature.

The company CEO Meena Kapoor further said that as the GPS of life our goal is to maximise our reach to touch as many lives as we can and help them attain clarity, focus and positivity in all spheres of life.

The chat with astrologer feature is now available on the Astroyogi app and websites.
