New York City, Jul 7, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - A member of the American Academy of Family Physician and the American Medical Association, Dr. Caton is a respected family physician. She can be found on staff at Huntsville Hospital - Physician Care at Madison in Alabama.

Huntsville Hospital was established in 1895 and is a community-based, not-for-profit hospital located in Madison County, Alabama. It has always been volunteer-led and community-owned, having grown to include hospitals in Huntsville, Madison, Athens, Decatur, Sheffield, Moulton, and Red Bay. It is now the second-largest hospital in Alabama, with an annual economic impact exceeding $1 billion with more than 1,800 patient beds and 14,000 employees spread across North Alabama.

A part of the Huntsville Hospital Physicians Network, Dr. Caton also holds privileges at Huntsville Hospital Main, Huntsville Hospital for Women & Children, and Madison Hospital.

Skilled and compassionate in her approach to care, she is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine, a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

A graduate of the National Autonomous University of Honduras, Dr. Caton relocated to the United States to further her training. She served her residency in family medicine at the University of Alabama at Birmingham before embarking on her professional journey.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

In 2018, Dr. Caton received the Patient Advocacy Award through the UAB Huntsville Family Medicine Residency Program. She speaks both English and Spanish.
