

Good news for the party rockers as O.Verses releases a number of summer smash hip hop songs

The lyrical genius and freestyle rapper O.Verses has delivered a ton of new hip hop numbers suitable for the slumber parties of summer and a new album on Spotify.

New Orleans, Dec 31, 1969 (IssueWire.com) - The upcoming hip hop artist from New Orleans, O.Verses makes a delightful blend of not too sweet, urban hip hop and not too malign, freestyle, and constructs a few energy-boosted, kooky singles on Spotify. His new album 'Paper Planes' is the reason for the tremendous hype and the unlimited streams of the singles off the album imply that once again he has won the hearts of his big fan club. 'Get The Bag' is one of the biggest hits from the new project that features astounding rappers like Koda Flow.

'Paper Planes' has been the most satisfying accomplishment in O.Verses' career. He was bred in New Orleans and learned about its hip hop culture at a young age. He always wanted to make music that is full of freshness and energy to dissipate any tension. With popular collaborations of the best artists in the city, he has spread his wings to fly higher. 'Repertoire' is a classic hip hop song where he freely flaunts his metaphorical style of storytelling. It is produced by Elev8ted Music and focuses on the spirit of the party season.

'My Territory' is an exclusive number that is relatable to the real moments in his life. He doesn't mince his words before articulating robustly when it comes to drawing out the philosophy of life in a few lines. His songs have a myriad of meanings from different angles that only imparts positivity and confidence in life. He recently had a remarkable time at the release party of 'Paper Planes' on July 7, 2020, at The Battlefield Chalmette.
