

Introducing AllThingsIP Africa™ (ATIPA)

Figuring the African IP landscape for the Global Market

Dubai, Jul 1, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - AllThingsIP Africa™ launches today as a new marketplace for Intellectual Property protection in Africa. ATIPA is the African IP gateway focused on helping global clients protect their IP across the African continent. This new marketplace coordinates and manages a functional and cooperative ecosystem of IP attorneys/Agents and IP Experts/Consultants across the African continent through the AfricaIP Network™.

“One simple and secure platform for communication and data exchange between clients and IP agents as well as a built-in collaborative IP Management tool for IP agents and attorneys” says Simbarashe Makahamadze, Founder at AllThingsIP Africa™.

An online store of all-inclusive ready-quoted IP services that include all costs from local resident IP agents and attorneys covering official fees, professional fees, disbursements and courier fees. While clients can track their orders/services and updates online, service providers will have access to an intuitive dashboard that allows them to manage their matters, clients, and payments on the go. The platform’s online store will provide direct access to IP services on the African continent at clients’ fingertips.

Features and benefits of AllThingsIP Africa™ include:

- Access to resident IP Agents & Attorneys in Africa
- Competitive All-Inclusive Fess
- Reliability, Efficiency & Security

AllThingsIP Africa™ will be available starting July 1, 2020. For more information on this platform, visit <https://allthingsipforafrica.com/>.
