New York City, Jul 8, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Lafleur is a well-versed internist who has been in practice with Southern New Hampshire Internal Medicine Associates since 1989. Offices are located in Derry, Bedford, and Windham. He sees patients at the Derry, New Hampshire office.

Southern New Hampshire Internal Medicine Associates provides routine medical screenings, as well as diagnosis and treatment of chronic illnesses. The experienced staff includes board-certified physicians, physician specialists, certified physician assistants, and nurse practitioners. Using a comprehensive approach, they work closely with patients to promote a healthy lifestyle and prevent the onset of disease. They prefer to address the “whole” individual in the scope of patient care, rather than just a particular symptom of illness.

A 1983 graduate of The Robert Larner, M.D. College of Medicine at The University of Vermont, Dr. Lafleur went on to serve his residency in internal medicine at Associated Hospital Program thru Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester, New York. He also holds a Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree from the University of Arizona in Tucson.

Licensed to practice medicine in New Hampshire, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine, a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
