

At 19 Mohit Patel is one of the fastest emerging name in the Entrepreneurial world

There is no shortcut to success says young entrepreneur from Udaipur, Mohit Patel

Udaipur, Aug 30, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Mohit Patel is a popular name in the village Kherwara of Udaipur, Rajasthan. Reason for this is quite obvious; the self-made 19 years old entrepreneur coming from a humble background of a small village has already founded 2 leading organizations at such a young age. First is MP Media Promotions which is a social media management company and second Popular Story, a news portal.

Born and brought up in village Mohit's schooling was done in the village itself. Mohit was always ambitious and dreamt to achieve big. Wide spread internet facilities and access to social media proved to be boon for this boy from a small village. From a very young age he believed that there is no shortcut to success. One has to work hard and relentlessly to reach at the peak. This was the reason that apart from his school education he started to learn about social media marketing and management through various online resources. He researched well and got acquainted with various social media marketing tools and how to use them effectively to enhance presence as well profit in business. Till the schooling was over he got mastery over maximum tools and techniques for social media promotion. Getting initial clients was difficult for him, but few people showed their trust on him. Promotional campaigns developed by Mohit worked well for them. Their social media presence and profit both grew tremendously. That's when his popularity as cost-effective social-media specialist grew.

In 2019 he founded his first firm MP Media promotions. His clients here include both national and off-shore clients. His tailor-made requirement based on social media campaigns and marketing have helped his clients to surpass their marketing goals.

In 2020 he launched his second venture Popular story, which is a news portal. He launched the news portal with a simple vision to provide relevant and correct information or news. In his views presently media is totally trend driven. In a race to show what is trending, first, lots of relevant news is left uncovered or unheard. Popular story focuses on that segment of news which should be available in public domain apart from the trending topics. It covers latest news from world of business, finance, technology, gadgets, entertainment and much more.

Both the companies are making tremendous growth in their respective field. Mohit Patel wants to take both these organizations to the level where his parents and villagers would feel proud about him and his success.

Mohit is a popular name in the village Kherwara of Udaipur, Rajasthan. Reason for this is quite obvious; the self-made 19 years old entrepreneur coming from a humble background of a small village has already founded 2 leading organizations at such a young age. First is MP Media Promotions which is a social media management company and second Popular Story, a news portal.

Born and brought up in village Mohit's schooling was done in the village itself. Mohit was always ambitious and dreamt to achieve big. Wide spread internet facilities and access to social media proved to be boon for this boy from small village. From very young age he believed that there is no shortcut to success. One has to work hard and relentlessly to reach at the peak. This was the reason that apart from his school education he started to learn about social media marketing and management through various online resources. He researched well and got acquainted with various social media marketing tools and how to use them effectively to enhance presence as well profit in business. Till the schooling was over he got mastery over maximum tools and techniques for social media promotion. Getting initial clients was difficult for him, but few people showed their trust on him. Promotional campaigns developed by Mohit worked well for them. Their social media presence and profit both grew tremendously. That's when his popularity as cost-effective social-media specialist grew.

In 2019 he founded his first firm MP Media promotions. His clients here include both national and off-shore clients. His tailor-made requirement based social media campaigns and marketing has helped his clients to surpass their marketing goals.

In 2020 he launched his second venture Popular story, which is a news portal. He launched the news portal with a simple vision to provide relevant and correct information or news. In his views presently media is totally trend driven. In a race to show what is trending, first, lots of relevant news is left uncovered or unheard. Popular story focuses on that segment of news which should be available in public domain apart from the trending topics. It covers latest news from world of business, finance, technology, gadgets, entertainment and much more.

Both the companies are making tremendous growth in their respective field. Mohit Patel wants to take both these organizations to the level where his parents and villagers would feel proud about him and his success.

Media Contact

MP MEDIA PROMOTION

MOHITPATEL9950@GMAIL.COM

09950981853

Udaipur

Source : MP MEDIA PROMOTION

See on IssueWire