

Diana SQ makes a Brilliant and Impressive Effort at making the Cover Version of ‘Skin’

The extremely talented Diana SQ has brought in something familiar yet unique to the table with the cover version of the popular track from Rag'n'Bone Man, ‘Skin’.

Bucharest, Aug 19, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Driven by an incredible fusion of soothing instrumentation and enticing vocal line, this cover version of Rag'n'Bone Man's famous song 'Skin' is perhaps one of the best created since the original release. From the offset, the track has been designed with a rising sense of smoothness, which has been perfectly reflected through the piano work from Diana SQ. Her work in this track is phenomenal – the way she has portrayed the smoothest fragments of the original track and also simplified the intricacies in a way beyond the expectation of any music enthusiast or fan. She has injected escapism and blissfulness into the structure of this track, which has certainly left everyone spellbound. One can easily feel the instrumental plot running through the veins and creating goosebumps.

Backed up by her stunning vocal performance and familiar sound design that has been recreated perfectly, this cover version of the celebrated track is not merely a piece of sound, it is something that needs to be cherished and embraced. The reverb-soaked and sensuous vocal line of the artist throw the listeners into the depth of creativity and then progress to keep the hypnotic ambiance maintained at the forefront. The original version of 'Skin' was a hit and still a fan favorite, and making a cover version that can match the standards of the original one is as hard as it can get. However, it can be said that the artist has reached this feat to a greater extent, as the fans have loved this new cover version from her.

The vocalist and the featured instrumental work envelop the listeners within its immersive structure, leading the moments with intensity, passion, and a constantly evolving musicianship that has worked fine in keeping the audiences hooked throughout its gorgeous lifespan. Diana SQ has certainly amazed one and all with her amazing dual work in this cover version. The clean and contemporary finish to the track has made the track feel complete and worth playing on a loop. In terms of musicality, it can be said that this track is at par with the original version, casting a similar kind of impact on the audiences. Witness this on YouTube.

To enjoy this music video 'Skin', check out the given below link :

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EIBODqWDFuY>

To know more visit the social media links :

<https://www.facebook.com/sqdiane>

https://www.instagram.com/feng_dquinn

Media Contact

Music Promotion Club

info@musicpromotion.club

Source : Diana SQ

See on IssueWire