Newcastle upon Tyne, Aug 21, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - We are living at times when a person is constantly battling from the expectations prescribed by others and if that feeling of saturation inside your head could be described in words then you must listen to Alex Visconti who has easily contemplated the motion through his new single. Featuring his immersive rhythms and attractive rap skills, the artist has composed a song that keeps things familiar to the listener and lets them relate completely. His catchy vocals and deeply poetic reflection perfectly suit the implied concept of the track and embraces the listener's ears throughout.

'Better Than That' is the new single in which the real-life hustle of a regular person has been well captivated through impressive verses. The song kicks in with a faded female voice singing and is soon overpowered by the artist's infectious rap through which he imparts a strong message of never giving up to the expectations of others. The song has an uplifting storyline which says that it is important for everyone to love themselves above anything else and not just be a slave to other's appreciation. The UK based producer and musician has leaned towards old-school beats and vintage vibes to stylistically enhance the song's mood.

Built under the label AV Beats 'Better Than That' is surely this generations' anthem and Alex Visconti has once again given a worldly experience to his fans by drawing imaginative visuals with his music. The song is empowering and guides to help moves from negativity to the better aspects of life.
