Announcing the Sahar BMD Earrings Brand Created by Vancouver Designer Sahar Barati

Colourful, chic and bold, this is what one immediately feels when looking at Sahar BMD jewellery

Vancouver, Sep 29, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Although classified as "costume jewelry", the stunning and unique earring designs created by Sahar Barati truly give the appearance that they are in a class of their own.

Colourful, chic and bold, this is what one immediately feels when looking at Sahar BMD jewellery. Indeed, Sahar Barati the founder and designer of the brand, says the creations express her deep passion for jewellery since she was a little girl.
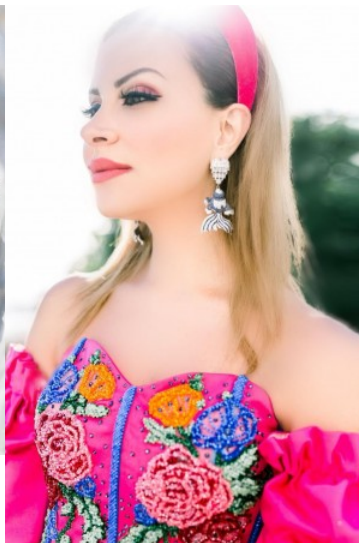

While the natural beauties of the Middle East have inspired the designs, Sahar has brought a playful touch to the design, combining the feminine with a traditional, joyful aesthetic to create luxury pieces that can be part of everyday life.

These pieces are indeed magnificent but can be worn often if one is daring enough to make a showstopper entrance daily!

The designer admits to falling in love with jewelry as a very young girl. The joy of being able to create art in this beautiful and whimsical style brings deep contentment to this busy woman and mother. Alice in Wonderland remains a strong influence for the designer. Sahar lights up when she mentions this fairy-tale theme. Some of her more vibrant pieces are reminiscent of Disney characters. Her jewelry could very well be described as a "unique blend of fanciful adventure and dreamlike surrealism". Drawn to the beauty of nature and with her attraction to the spirit of the earth, many of Sahar's pieces reflect this passion via bejeweled fish, ladybugs, birds, flowers, and images of love.

Sahar believes that colour brings happiness. We all need a respite from today's world of darkness and fear even if only for a moment. The dazzling lightness of these gorgeous earrings will surely transport you to an exotic land where you can embrace the beauty of life, even during these trying times.
