Dijon, Sep 10, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Tone-Pearls Records presents a new True Analogue Recording issued on reel to reel Master Tape and audio cassette. The album contains some previously unreleased contemporary Hungarian songs by Bartók, Dohnányi, and Ligeti. Master Tapes present the superior musical sound even today.

The album "Hungarian Songs in a Chateau" is a collection of the most beautiful songs of famous Hungarian contemporary composers: Béla Bartók, Ernő Dohnányi, and György Ligeti.

"I was fascinated by the inner beauty of these songs. I wonder why these works are almost forgotten and unreleased," said Anne Sophie Petit, coloratura soprano.

Anne Sophie Petit joined Stephan Macleod's class at the Lausanne Musikhochschule, where she completed a Master's degree in solo vocal performance. Young Talent of the Philippe Jaroussky Music Academy in 2019-2020, she is also a recipient of the Royaumont Foundation and joined the Opéra de Lyon Studio in 2020.

She made her debut at the Opéra de Lausanne as Musetta in La Boheme (2017) and has since sung the Fairy in Cinderella (2018) and the title role in Guy-François Leuenberger's creation Little Red Riding Hood (2020).

Her projects in 2020-2021 include the roles of Fire, Princess and Nightingale in Ravel's l'Enfant et les Sortilèges at the Opéra de Lyon, Yniold in Pelléas and Mélisande at the Opéra de Rouen, and the Queen of the Night in die Zauberflöte, in a tour of the Orchestra of the Eighteenth Century in the Netherlands.

"Analogue tape almost disappeared as the world went digital in the eighties. Fortunately, some fanatic guys want to save the best-sounding medium," mentioned Laszlo Gaal, Founder of Tone-Pearls Records.

The album is recorded by True Analogue Recording Technique recreating the authentic atmosphere and sound of this grand rococo salon. The Master Tape and audio cassette releases are first-generation copies of the original reel to reel tape without any post-processing or manipulation.
