

CALEBO INTERVIEWED - Love, Relationship & Marriage

CalebO explains his views on all of these and much more.

Oklahoma City, Oct 24, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - We all know that CalebO just celebrated his 7th year marriage anniversary. When asked to describe his experience of dating and relationships before Marriage. He replies "Umm, I've never been a promiscuous person; the truth is I never had a any form relationship before marriage, the only person I ever dated is my wife today. I was a complete virgin all thru the way."

We are totally astonished, CalebO as we know has a way with words but how could he had been a virgin. That's kind of rare and no hard feelings, we couldn't believe that statement. Our sources has it that CalebO and Linna are more like a twin river always flowing together towards the same direction, you can't find one without the other close-by.

Do you think CalebO was really a virgin before meeting Linna, let us know by your comments below.

Recently in an interview, linna was asked what life was like after meeting CalebO and she replies " He is God-sent to me, everything I prayed to have in a man, I found in him. His gentle, honest, humble, hardworking and mostly of all loving and caring to our family. He is really my dream come true in relationship. Everyone has flaws but this man is a gift, unearthen gift to me. His knowledge and commitment to his faith is among some of the reasons why I fell in love with him.

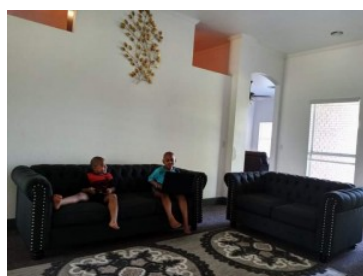

CalebO's love for his kids is incredible. Splashing them with gifts after gifts. Those boys are totally spoiled with gifts. During our interview with him. We asked him if having kids changed his life. He smiled and replied stating "You really coming with these questions. I have two boys and a step kid, making three boys in my house. Now that's a tough job, raising boys is no game play. you know, I can't do shit anytime am at home, they all over me shouting DADDY!!!, Oh well, i have to listen to them. When I was a kid, my dad was always there for me all thru, he was my friend and just like my dad, in the same way , am a friend to my kids, we will play soccer, racing, football, basketball and all kind of games. The most scary part was the day my first child was born, the Doc was like here is your son, and the nurse said hold him, am almost pissing on my pants, because I've never held a new born before in my life. Within the next 3 hours they were already rushing him into the ICU, OMG! my heart drop right down, am like OK! please God that's my blood, my kind, my son, please don't let nothing happen to him. I have never felt love to anyone in my entire life. It was like this is everything I'm living for. He is my Son. He made it and today he is 6 years old already".

This couple are meant for each other. We don't see a divorce in their future. They've came a long way to this point and CalebO is not shy of talking about their journey.

We found out that he surprised his wife with a beautiful Range Rover for their anniversary.

The rate of divorce these days are alarming and increasing becoming an issue with new couples but for CalebO and Linna of different backgrounds, Ethnicity and Pedigree, yet their love story grows stronger and better is a ray of hope for this generation.

Our sources has it that CalebO is currently working on a project for a new album "Golden Rain", we have no clue to when it will be released.
