

Hamed Tehranialavi Iranian actor and composer

Iranian actor

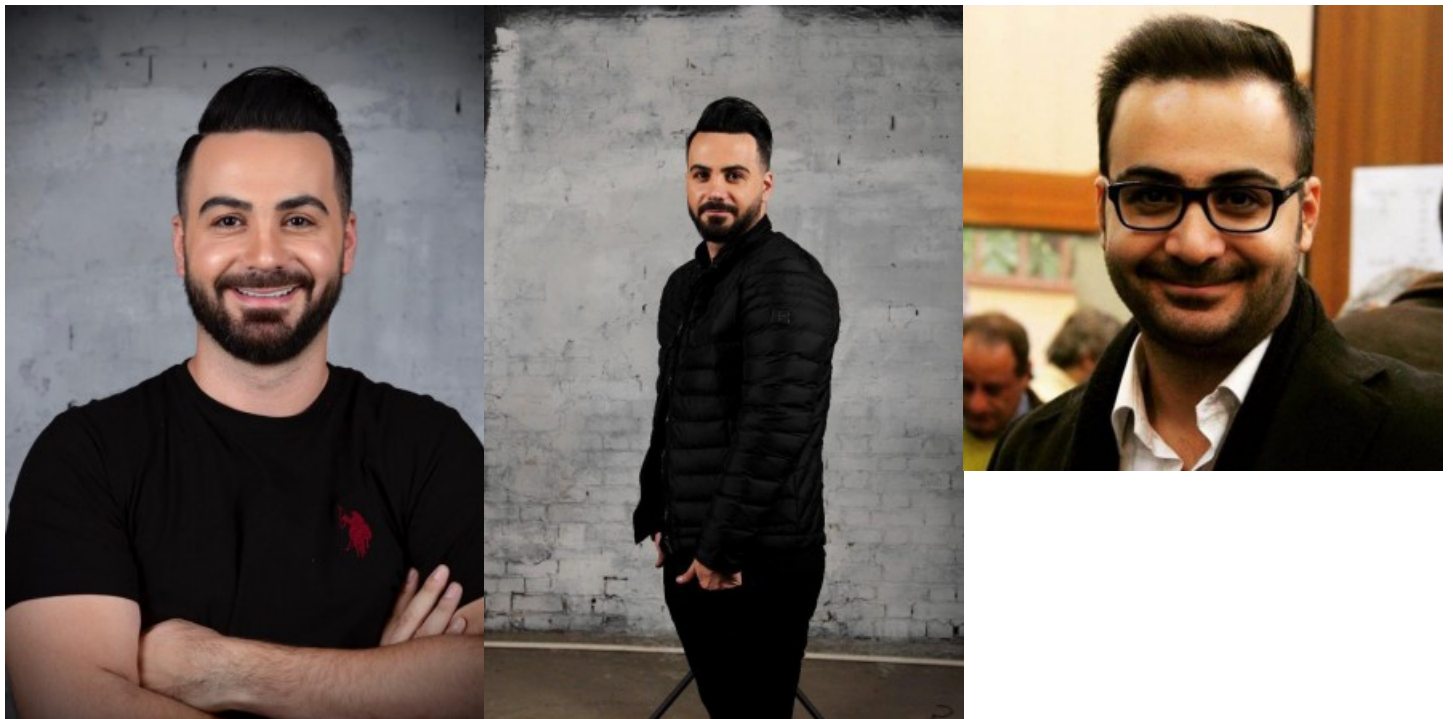

Tehran, Dec 15, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Hamed Tehranialavi Iranian actor and composer, born on September 1, 1985, is an actor, director of cinema, television and composer.

He holds a bachelor's degree in music and a master's degree from the Russian Conservatory. Tehrani Alavi started his artistic activity in 1993 by playing a role in the series "Nim Negah" directed by Ali Omrani. After that, due to his interest in music, he continued his education in this field of art. In the following years, he played a role in series such as "Gozar Mirza" made by Mohammad Aalami and several telefilms. But his main fame was due to his appearance in the TV series "Khandeh Bazaar" directed by Shahab Abbasi, which continued in 5 series.

The actor has also acted in the series "Dasht-e Azadegan" made by Ahmad Kavari and "Shokarabad" and in addition to acting in the series "Dast Be Naqd" and "Shahrgomshdeh", he has also been in charge of composing it.

Acting in the movies "Sometimes" directed by Mohammad Reza Rahmani, composing and making music for the movies "Love, Chance, Accident" directed by Hossein Farahbakhsh, "Sour Lemon" directed by Javad Razavian, "Divorce in the Iranian style" by Farid Kalhor and "Motor Time" by Farshad Arj, "Sweet Heritage", "Close Your Eyes", "Common Grave", "Last Warning" and 2 other artistic experiences of this young artist. He has also directed the programs of Persepolis network and recently directed the series "One House" produced by Roshan Amiri.

Media Contact

Hamed Tehranialavi

hamedtehranalavi9898@gmail.com

Source : Hamed Tehranialavi

See on IssueWire