

Rap duo Raw offers a trip to the golden age of hip hop through their sublime groovy number 'THANKFUL'

Eminent American hip hop group Raw unfurls their rhyming dexterity in their recently released masterpiece 'THANKFUL'. It is opulent in pummelling melodic resonance.

Scarborough, Dec 26, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - The genre of hip hop has always given a meaningful manifestation of the artists' creativity through its creations. Two of the biggest names in the independent hip hop scene, 007 and Gifted da Flamethrowa have teamed up creating Raw to convey their message to the world through their means of music. Giving back to back hits, they have recently released their finest creation, 'THANKFUL' that features FIN-STHECO. The song is the epitome of their fiery spirit peeking through their power-packed vocal performance.

Sharing the stages with the legendary artists of the genre, the multi-talented artists decided to team up in order to enrich their artistic possibilities. The duo has become extremely popular with the current hip hop community, armed with their street credibility. Refusing to give in to the monotony of the current hip hop industry, the brilliant musicians have established a soundscape that is honest, original, and relatable to its audience.

Produced by HBM, the song 'THANKFUL' featuring FIN-STHECO presents an exceptional rhythmic cadence serving as the perfect backdrop for their flawless rhyming. Each verse of the artists interlaces with each other in perfect harmony. The killer hook and the hard-hitting rap flow forms a symphony of pure acoustic satisfaction. The surreal melody is almost hypnotizing and amplifies the impact of the lyrical wordplay. Raw has been entertaining the audience for years with tracks like 'Midnight Hour', 'Jump in (Live)', 'All We Have (Live)', 'Deep Sea', and more.
