Get to know Obstetrician-Gynecologist Dr. Ana-Maria C. Gray, who serves patients in Arlington, Virginia.

New York City, Jan 11, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A trusted professional in the field of obstetrics and gynecology, Dr. Gray is in practice with Capital Women's Care Division 67 in Arlington, Virginia.

Nurturing the spirit of caring for every woman, Capital Women's Care Division 67 is an innovative and dynamic collaborative practice featuring three obstetrician-gynecologists. They are experts in PCOS management, minimally invasive hysteroscopic and laparoscopic surgeries for a variety of complex gynecologic needs and high-risk pregnancies, offering top of the line care for all obstetrical and gynecological needs.

Prior to Capital Women's Care Division 67, Dr. Gray worked as an OB/GYN at several hospitals throughout Washington, D.C., Virginia, and Maine. She previously served as an Assistant Professor and as the Director of the OB/GYN International Pelvic Surgery Program within the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at The George Washington University.

A Fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG), she is a member of the Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics & the Medical Society of Northern Virginia.

At the start of her academic career, Dr. Gray earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Biology from Queens College, the City University of New York in New York City. She then attended medical school at the State University of New York at Stony Brook before completing her residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Monmouth Medical Center in Long Branch, New Jersey, where she was chief resident her final year.

An authority in her field, she is board-certified in obstetrics and gynecology by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology (ABOG). The mission of the ABOG is to define standards, certify obstetricians and gynecologists, and facilitate continuous learning to advance knowledge, practice, and professionalism in women's health.

Obstetrics and Gynecology is the medical specialty that encompasses the two subspecialties of obstetrics and gynecology. An obstetrician-gynecologist, or OB-GYN, is a healthcare professional who specializes in female reproductive health.

Throughout her fruitful career, Dr. Gray has given numerous presentations and has been published in peer-reviewed publications. She is of Hispanic origin and as a Latino doctor, has spent years performing OBGYN care for medical outreach programs in Central America.

On a more personal note, she speaks both English and Spanish.
