

Mazen Tumi – Attorney at Law and Lead Council, Tumi Law Firm

Tripolitania, Misrata, Jan 31, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Mazen Tumi is an experienced litigator and a seasoned lawyer who specializes in Oil and Gas, Corporate Law, Construction & Finance and has been involved in a significant number of projects in Libya including Mergers & Acquisitions, Privatization, and Financial Facilities. He is also the lead counsel and managing partner of the Tumi Law firm, a legal firm well known in the Arabic world for offering high-quality legal consultation and guidance to its clients worldwide at very genuine rates. The firm has a reputation for being an excellent and very trustworthy law firm. Because of this reason, the firm has gradually expanded from a small beginning just thirty years ago to become the largest law firm in Libya, building a national and international reputation for excellence. Mazen Tumi, through his firm, has been offering exclusive services to its clients in the area of legalization of documents in Libya that cover legal translations, corporate visa applications for nationals, and payroll services. The practice area also includes corporate law & business start-up, intellectual property, investment law, petroleum industry including oil and gas, immigration law, aviation & maritime law, insurance law, banking finance law, and employment law.

Mazen Tumi has shown interest in the legal field during the very early years of his education. He currently holds three degrees from reputed institutions and is a member of the Libyan Bar Association, the Arab Lawyers Union, and the Arab Institute of Arbitration. He is a graduate of the School of Law at Tripoli University and also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration. He also holds a Master of Laws degree, graduating with distinction from the University of East London, with a specialization in Corporate and Commercial Law, and International Trade. During his career as an attorney and lead counsel in Tumi Law firm, he has worked with several clients and gained extensive experience representing both national and international companies and organizations in their various transactions, including joint ventures, concessions, EPSC, DEPSA, and EPC agreements, MOUs, shareholders' agreements, Project Finance and Securitization, Onward Investments, and commercial disputes. With his legal practice and extensive expertise in the field, he has managed to prove himself as a key player in an impressive number of projects in Libya including Mergers & Acquisitions, Privatization, and Financial Facilities.

Throughout his career as a legal consultant and attorney, Mazen Tumi has facilitated several corporates in their business ventures and helped numerous projects to materialize from scratch. At the peak of his career as a lawyer, he has successfully advised a U.S. Energy Group corporation, where he negotiated the due diligence process in an international acquisition transaction of Oil and Gas companies in the Middle East and Africa valued at $150 million. He has also advised a global financial institution based in Bahrain regarding its Islamic finance projection facilities granted to a Cyprus company through a Master Murabaha Agreement. Mazen Tumi is currently a member of the Libyan Bar Association, the Arab Lawyers Union, and the Arab Institute of Arbitration. He also provides counsel to leading international companies, such as those in the Agency, Distribution, Construction, Telecommunications, and Oil and Gas sectors. He also advises and represents clients with respect to litigation and legal proceedings in regard to Libyan law.

Media Contact

Mazen Tumi

officialmazentumi@gmail.com

Source : Tumi Firm

See on IssueWire