

Mumbai Deputy Commissioner (IRS), Siddharth Jaiswal wrote a Romantic Novel, Launched by Actor Ranveer Singh

Maharashtra, 18th January 2021: Bollywood actor Ranveer Singh launched a romantic novel 'Extra Mile: When Love Returns' written by Siddharth Jaiswal (IRS), Deputy Commissioner, Mumbai. The book is published by Halfcrow.

Mumbai, Jan 19, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - The novel 'Extra Mile: When Love Returns' is an accomplished debut exploring the unexpected turns of life that ultimately determine one's destiny in the choices of love. The unconventional love story delves on the bond shared by the protagonists who are willing to travel the extra mile for keeping the love alive.

The book is already making a buzz amongst the Bollywood circle. Actor Suniel Shetty, who has written the Foreword of the book, has found the gullibility of characters in the love story interesting. Noted filmmaker Subhash Ghai talking about the storyline said, 'This novel comes with a funny, interesting and realistic narrative of a modern-day love story. A nice read indeed.'

Siddharth Jaiswal quoted, 'A friend of mine told me his story and I decided on narrating it to the world. This is not because of my desire of becoming a novelist but because of the message of love that his story had for both the married and the unmarried people. It's good to be in love but it's beautiful to be loyal once you are married.'
