

Rising American rapper na$karmony is back with more innovative bangers in 2021

Georgia, Savannah, Feb 2, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The world of hip hop has been graced with numerous young and talented artists that have brought a distinctive change in the genre. Indie underground rap artist, na$karmony has been on a journey to enrich the genre with his unique compositions. The independent rapper has started his musical saga in 2016 and has been perfecting his vapor trap techniques along the way. He has devoted all his passion to find his ideal sound through expressive verse delivery and sublime lyrical wordplays.

Coming out of Savannah, Georgia, the brilliant performer has had some legal troubles in his life. Now being free of all those problems, he has been recording new and refreshing music on a regular basis for 2021. He has also released music videos for his hit soundtracks such as 'Karlton Banks', 'Out Of The Mud', and more.

His hit tracks such as 'playboy magazine', '#steal', and 'Karlton Banks' have gained more than 2 million streams worldwide. His music is released by his label, Juggaholics. Na$karmony has also released 'IM MY OWN STYLIST' featuring Lil retro2100. His music is available on SoundCloud. Follow him on Instagram for more updates on his upcoming projects.

<https://soundcloud.com/juggaholics>

Media Contact

naskarmoney

juggmanebb@icloud.com

Source : naskarmoney

See on IssueWire