Texas, Plano, Feb 18, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Digital.ai, creator of the industry's first intelligent Enterprise Value Stream Platform, today announced the 15th annual State of Agile survey is now open. Established by CollabNet VersionOne, now part of Digital.ai, the State of Agile survey informs the annual State of Agile report, the longest-running and most widely cited the agile report in the world.

Agile practitioners and other members of the Agile community are invited to participate by taking the survey today at <https://15thstateofagile.questionpro.com/>

Now in its 15th year, the State of Agile report documents the agile experiences of IT and business professionals across a range of industries and roles worldwide and provides global enterprises with comprehensive data to benchmark and guide their Agile practices. More than 40,000 professionals have contributed to the report over the past 14 years. The 15th annual State of Agile report will be available in late spring, 2021.
