Essex, Ilford, Feb 23, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Warranty Direct - one of the most trusted brands for Extended Car Warranty in the UK has been purchased by “FBFM” from its previous owner, BNP Paribas Cardif.

FBFM has considerable experience in operating extended car warranties, and it is looking to build an enhanced reputation for quality, customer service, and value for money, for what is one of the longest established brand names in the extended car warranty market.

Warranty Direct offers extended car warranty from as low as £10 per month, the Gold warranty offering includes:

- Unlimited mileage cover during the policy term, with all mechanical and electrical cover.
- 24/7 AA Roadside Assistance, Home-Start, and MOT Test insurance included as standard.
- Repair costs covered up to the value of your vehicle.
- Interest-Free monthly payments with no cancellation fees.

All of us at FBFM is excited at the prospect of creating an improved service and customer offering for our future customers.

Please keep an eye out for our future blogs on the website and announcements on our social media platforms.

*"We are excited about the new journey ahead. Warranty Direct is renowned for its commitment for delivering the best to the clients and the motto of the company remains the same with the new management too" – Bharat Mehta, Founder of FBFM and the New CEO of Warranty Direct
