“I have worked with many patients, who were able to utilize help to overcome their mental health issues and went on to do great things with their lives. I have seen the power of mental health recovery first hand, so yes, I’m very passionate about mental health recovery” expressed the doctor.

After earning his medical degree from the University of Alexandria, Dr. Beltagui completed his residency in psychiatry at the State University of New York at Buffalo. He then built on that experience working as a staff psychiatrist for the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services.

Upon moving to California, he worked as a core faculty member for the UCLA-Kern Psychiatry Residency Program. During his time there, he mentored psychiatry residents and medical students.

A member of the American Psychiatric Association and Clinical TMS Society, Dr. Beltagui is board-certified in psychiatry by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology (ABPN). The ABPN is a not-for-profit corporation dedicated to serving the professions of psychiatry and neurology.

Psychiatry is the medical specialty devoted to the diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of mental disorders. These include various maladaptations related to mood, behavior, cognition, and perceptions. Psychiatrists evaluate, diagnose, and treat patients with mental, emotional, and behavioral disorders. They conduct thorough psychiatric evaluations, develop treatment plans, prescribe medication, and evaluate treatment results.

On a more personal note, Dr. Beltagui’s favorite places to vacation include Bora Bora and Tahiti.
