Chase Dough Benjamin (CDB) is the flagship artist for ETCMG, and after watching the video to his new single...I understand why he's their franchise player! Chase Dough begin the video by entering a hotel wearing a shark backpack instructing one of his Beautiful...Intelligent...Thang...Chasin...Hunnids to proceed to the room. The video continues as the hook jumps out at you with Auto Tunes sticking to the hook's medley "She's a beautiful thang chasin hunnids". Catching all ears that are listening while the bass drops and linger throughout the song. Leaving nothing but head bobbing and finding yourself quickly repeating the hook "She's a beautiful thang chasin hunnids". We had to catch up with CDB to find out how he feels about his new single getting ready to drop on April 3? He replied "I feel accomplished!" He makes sure everyone knows he's an "80s baby and he's Pimpin".as he dances through the hotel's hallway holding a bottle of Remy Martin making moves with his iPhone. Ladies and gentlemen Chase Dough Benjamin the movement is real! CDB states yeah "I'm big like Optimus Prime" assuring us that his "hoes are celibate unless they break a trick but his hoes do sell a bit." Understanding his music that's bringing more light to the hustle game. It took Chase Dough Benjamin three years to drop this single... it started when he was incarcerated; he had the hook but no verse! it's like what CDB said... "Bitcoin cashing out every dime, bitcoin cashing out every time". Single drops April 3, 2021.
