

Fresh Off The Artist's Easel - "A Moment In Time" Spontaneous Realism Portrait Whitney Houston Becomes Available

Vivid Fine Artist Seeks Serious Art Collector/Gallery

Oklahoma, Oklahoma City, Mar 18, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Award-winning contemporary abstract artist Matthew R. Paden and his Savvy Palette brand announced today that his new Spontaneous Realism portrait of Whitney Houston, "A Moment In Time" is now available!

This dynamic and vivid portrait of the iconic American singer and actress who was certified as the most awarded female artist of all time by Guinness World Records and is one of the best-selling recording artists of all time, with sales of over 200 million records worldwide.

The portrait measures 36 x 36 x 1.5 on premium gallery wrapped canvas and would fit very well in a contemporary home, or office as a high-impact statement piece. This piece is currently available on both the artist website (www.savvypalette.com) and internationally known fine art site Saatchi Art Moment In Time Painting by Matthew Paden | Saatchi Art

Matt's originals are painted on professional grade gallery wrapped cotton canvas. Triple primed with professional-grade, acid-free gesso; every canvas is made by hand to precise specifications to ensure a superior painting experience for the artist — as well as maximum archival stability and durability. Finally, the primed fabric is evenly stretched around solid wood stretcher bars, which are kiln-dried for warp-resistance and long-term stability.

Matt's originals include an artist signed C.O.A.

Savvy Collectors Are Saying!

"I have 2 prints the Jimi Hendrix and John Lennon I get the best reviews from friends and neighbors that come to visit. My brother has an original of Jimmy Buffett and my next-door neighbor has a Janis Joplin. All are extremely happy with them. I love the realism."

- Fritz F., Oklahoma City, OK

"Matthew is a very talented artist. His vision flows from his heart connected to his soul. His interpretation is bright, bold, and intuitive."

- John D., Phoenix, AZ

About The Series:

"To explore a genre, I believe it is fundamental artists push boundaries of what is considered the norm and delve into the curious unknown. With diverse influences as Elton John and Clint Eastwood, my "Famous Faces," Spontaneous Realism series juxtapositions representational art with fluidity and vulnerability apparent in abstract expressionism. Splashes of vivid color along with dynamic brushwork fuse vigorous combinations synthesized from opaque and transparent layers enhanced into a prestige manifesto."

When it comes to painting, the artist had this to say...

"I have always loved art — seeing it, learning about it, experiencing it, and creating it. Perhaps, it is the unbridled freedom in expressing, and questioning the often-chaotic world around me."

About The Artist:

Matthew R. Paden (b. 1977) is an award-winning contemporary abstract artist living in Oklahoma with his beautiful wife and daughter, Matt's larger-than-life pieces astonish in both private and public exhibits.

Specializing in Spontaneous Realism, Paden often uses vivid and expressive colors with lots of palette knife texture to create the strikingly evocative acrylic pieces. From his atmospheric "Utopia" series to the eminently realistic "Famous Faces", the artist masterly captures the subtlest of emotions and delicate moody intricacies.

Despite his diverse choice of subjects, Matt's body of work is united in its ability to evoke emotion and awe in the viewer, with precise details etched amongst broad yet perfectly executed brushstrokes.

Media Contact

Matthew R Paden

info@savvypalette.com

14055887192

2503 S 19th Street

Source : Savvy Palette

See on IssueWire