

New Black Owned Video Game Set To Release For PC Xbox & PlayStation.

Illinois, Chicago, Mar 14, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Chicago Illinois rapper Tru Hunnit recently released the trailer for his highly anticipated video game “Tru Or Die: Chiraq”. The multi-talented entertainer is the owner of A Tru Or Die Inc. The entertainment company has had a great deal of success in the music industry. CEO Tru Hunnit decided to step into another lane of entertainment. In partnership with The Shade Game Dev, “ Tru Or Die: Chiraq” was created.

According to the company's website the game "is a Third-Person Video Game based in the southside of Chicago aka Chiraq. The year is 2012, You play as Tru Hunnit, a rising college basketball star raised in the Wild 100s. "

Pre-orders are now available for the game which will be released for PC December 2021 And, Xbox & PlayStation in early 2022. While gamers are raving about the realistic graphics in the game, "Tru Or Die: Chiraq" also offers an excellent platform to businesses looking for branding and product placement. "The Open World City of Chiraq will have a limited selection of Billboards/ Clothing Stores / Posters / Story Characters. If you ever wanted to see yourself/ Your company/ brand in a video game. Now is your chance." The company's website states.

Artists also have the opportunity to submit their music to the video games soundtrack. According to the company. "Music will be found during missions, While in cars. And some spots around the city will also have the radio playing."

For more information visit the website "Tru Or Die: Chiraq" today!

<https://www.truordiechiraq.com/>

Tru Or Die: Chiraq (Trailer #1) Videogame 2021 <https://youtu.be/ryjfHkJcF7s>

Media Contact

MUSICIZLIFE.COM

PR@MUSICIZLIFE.COM

(646)-930-7833

Source : Musicizlife.com

See on IssueWire