Stating that he has received many TV series, movies, and commercial offers from Turkish producers, Samir said, "Our negotiations are continuing now. One of the projects will surely be positive. We are working to take part in the most accurate project and to meet the Turkish audience. I will give good news shortly," she said.

"I'm Very Excited To Meet With The Turkish Audience"

Nagizadeh Samir, one of the popular actors of Azerbaijan, is counting the days to meet with the Turkish audience. "Our project-based negotiations with Turkish producers continue. I also received an offer from a broadcast and highly rated TV series. Apart from that, there are also projects that are at the scenario stage. We are currently negotiating with my manager. I am excited to share my first job with my lovers. "I will meet the Turkish audience with good work," he said.

"I'm excited about the feedback I will receive, too. I hope we can establish a deep connection with the Turkish audience as in Azerbaijan. Because this is my second homeland. Being able to achieve success here is very important for my acting career. I can even call it a turning point ".

"I am taking Nesrin Cavadzade and Tamer Karadagli as an example for myself"

Samir said that many celebrities involved in making the Azeri players in Turkey, "I follow Nesrin Cavadzade of pleasure. She is doing a very successful job. Especially, I watched the last two TV series without missing any. I learn lessons from his acting. Likewise, I love Tamer Karadagli very much. My childhood was spent watching his knees. Then a player in the Azeri, Turkey's most prominent canals and play the leading role in one of the top-rated series was very proud of me. Tamer Karadagil had a great influence on my dreams of acting as a child, "he said.

Samir, "Turkey's most loved, respected, for Cem Karaca Anatolian Rock by the artist's father, who made great strides Azerbaijani Did you know that? We listen fondly to Cem Karaca's songs in Azerbaijan. He did successful things and the Turkish people embraced him. I hope to be as successful as these master players in the future. I am working with all my strength for this "he said.
