Recall the lyrics “What's Going On”

A good question considering all that is going on now, from pandemic to important racial situations, floods, poverty, big business and big government, child abuse, and a whole lot more uncertainties. But wait there just might be hope for humanity despite the random appearance.

There is still hope and the Native ways just might be a fix for our planet and the People that live on planet Earth together. “A change has got to come” Leonard J. Mountain Chief deceased elder of the Blackfeet tribe in Northwest Montana. Leonard, a teacher of the Native way always believed there is hope for our planet and the People. His belief was always “WORKING TO CHANGE CONDITIONS ON PLANET EARTH FOR THE BETTER.

Leonard was the mentor and teacher for all those that would listen and adhere to his teachings.

Jay north, a follower of Leonard. J Mountain Chief and the Native way wrote a book about Leonard and his teachings titled, Open spaces my life With Leonard J. Mountain Chief

An eye-opening dissertation and story of his mentorship, a guide for saving the plant, teachings of the old ways, and hope.
