

Trending Today: Anthony Abou Antoun Happens To Be One of The Best Entertainment Producers Across The Mena Region.

Lebanon, Beirut, Apr 7, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Earning the key to success, Anthony Abou Antoun opened many doors.

The 25-year-old, who is the CEO of Crazy Events, The Crazy City.com, and Artists & More, has shown through hard work and event success that he might be one of the youngest CEOs in the events scene.

Despite his young age, determination, and hard work, he managed to turn Artists & More into a company that consists of more than 120 local artists and 300 international artists.

Most importantly, he would like to see young talents who can represent Lebanon abroad as a country of entertainment and not a country of war.

The young entrepreneur now has his own office for his companies, located in Lebanon, Beirut & UAE, Dubai. It's a friendly studio with a surround system, a DJ set where guests can chill, and employees can enjoy contemplating new ideas and shows. The studio also includes a stock of costumes imported from Ibiza and Miami that are worn by Artists & More and Crazy Events entertainers.
