Cloud Media had humble beginnings. After moving to Hamilton with his Family in 2011 from Christchurch, Raj Singh Sandhu sought opportunities to utilise his skillset to help local businesses.

“I noticed a lot of local businesses either not having a website or had a poor functioning website, and I saw an opportunity to help them out,” says Cloud Media owner and operator, Raj Singh Sandhu. During this time, Raj helped many businesses by creating high-performing websites. Cloud Media was then born as a website design company.

As expert web designers in Hamilton, Cloud Media first takes the time to understand the client’s unique website issues and requirements and then come up with a tailored solution on how they can achieve the client’s website goals.

Cloud Media’s experienced team of professional website developers creates fast, user-friendly, high-performing websites that offer an amazing user experience for the customers on either desktop or mobile devices. “All of our websites are designed with the focus of solving the customer’s problems generating sales and inquiries for the business,” adds Raj.

Offering the complete package for web design Hamilton, Cloud Media offers brand development such as logos, product packaging, website copywriting, professional photography, and videography for their website.

“All our content created is well-researched, strategically designed to solve a target audience’s problem, drive organic traffic, and improve the overall image of the business online,” adds Raj.

Cloud Media also offers digital marketing services such as SEO, Google ads, social media marketing for Facebook and Instagram, video marketing, and influencer marketing.
