

New York Based Female Singer KC DeForge Pins her Name With Exclusive Vocal Quality

New York based female singer KC DeForge welcomes the new season with her fresh and scintillating vocals as the singer drops two singles to showcase her merits.

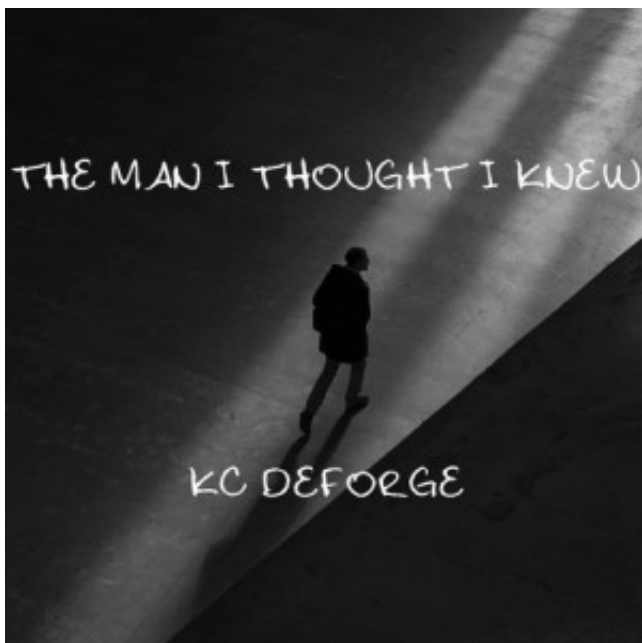

about her experiences and explores the best of the Alternative genre to resonate with the audience is KC DeForge. To this talented New York based female singer, lyrics are of utmost importance and she puts great emphasis on the songwriting to connect honestly with the audience. Being a self-taught artist, the singer doesn't pin her artistry to just one genre but creates a sound that is heartfelt and original. She is tremendously soulful and her majestic voice carves has gained her immense appreciation from the audience.

At the latest, the singer has dropped two songs 'The Man I Thought I Knew' and 'Drained' that offers a pleasant sonic journey to the audience. There is literary and emotional complexity intertwined with perfection and the singer has put to use her beautiful ideas to make the listener easily relate to her situations. The way the singer has framed both the songs is incredibly appealing and discloses her artistry to a great extent. With all sorts of haunting vibes and creatively immersive melodies, the songs develop unsettling emotions in the listener and make them yearn for more. The sound of both the songs feels fresh and her effortless expression makes the sound design all the more enduring.

The song 'The Man I Thought I Knew' is dedicated to a guy who broke the promise. The song shares her heartfelt reaction to the situation and resonates with its hidden emotions. After a while, the singer realized that she had overreacted and that the boy didn't deserve it. The other track 'Drained' pens down her all her emotions that the singer has experienced in the past couple of months. It's about the man she is in love with. However, the situation is complicated and KC DeForge is finding her solace in music. Listen to her on Soundcloud and YouTube, and follow her on Twitter and Instagram for more updates.

For more tracks of KC DeForge, Please go through the below link :

<https://soundcloud.com/kcdeforge>

Music Promotion Club

info@musicpromotion.club

Source : KC DeForge

See on IssueWire