

Fahad Asad - A Successful Entrepreneur Stepping Towards Building His Social Media Presence

United Arab Emirates, Dubai, Jun 12, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Age is just a number and cannot define your capabilities was again proved after a 47-year-old successfully built his presence over social media. Fahad Asad is a well-known social media influencer from the United Arab Emirates. His journey from being a businessman to a Tik Tok star is commendable!

Born in the city of Rawalpindi, Pakistan Fahad belongs to a Muslim family. He has a family consisting of seven members. He is the son of Prof. Manzoor Hashmi and Sofia Tabbasum. For completing his primary and secondary education he was enrolled in Saint Mary's Cambridge School, Rawalpindi. Further, he went to Asghar Mall Degree college for his higher studies. Asad later flew to the United States to pursue a degree in Masters in Strategic Leadership from Mountain State University.

Setting up four businesses the entrepreneur was doing fine until he got attracted to the world of social media and noticed his interest in the field. However, some things that were always pulling him back were the societal parameters. He wasn't sure how society would react to him being an influencer at his age.

Eventually, he stepped into the area and gained appreciation from the audience. That one move by the creator today makes him not just an influencer but also an actor, model, filmmaker, and director. He is the brand ambassador to many foods, clothing, and tourism companies. His own businesses are in the Emirates and are run successfully.

Fahad is also a moderator to few social media groups, one among which is the PID or Pakistanis in Dubai. The actor has worked as an endorser for a few companies such as Al Naya cafe, Saif Ullsh associates, Dubai Car Finance, Tabs2Tax.

Journey of the Model cum Actor is an inspiration to all the budding influencers in the country. Hope you enjoyed reading about Asad!

Thank you and warm greetings!
