Florida, Jacksonville, Jun 1, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Coach Robert Rahn steps down as JAA's Athletic Director and Head Football coach due to unforeseen personal reasons that will require all of his time- director Necho Carroll announced Tuesday afternoon in a press release.

"We appreciate Rahn's dedicated efforts on behalf of our football program, he's done a great job to recruit talented coaches and players for JAA's Moccasins," Carroll said. "This change is difficult because of the steadfast commitment that Rahn has made to our student-athletes. We will miss him and wish him all the best."

"This program is great, I've put together a great staff and wish JAA Moccasins well," said Rahan.

Carroll said former NFL Cornerback and Clay County native Nolan Carroll will serve as the JAA's Moccasins head coach for the remainder of the season. "We are excited to have Coach Carroll build upon what Robert has built to lead our student-athletes for a successful NIAA 2021 college football season."

The JAA Moccasins start their first practice on July 19, 2021, and will have their season opener on August 28th in South Carolina.
